GANG MEMBER SENTENCED TO 18 YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON IN TITANIC STONES STREET GANG DRUG TRAFFICKING CASE

ROCKFORD -- PATRICK J. FITZGERALD, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois; ANDREW L. TRAVER, Special Agent-In-Charge of the Chicago Office of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives; ROBERT D. GRANT, Special Agent-In-Charge of the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; RICHARD MEYERS, Winnebago County Sheriff; and CHET EPPERSON, Chief of the Rockford Police Department, today made the following announcement:

Today, United States District Judge Philip G. Reinhard sentenced ANTHONY K. GLOVER, also known as "Bones," 24, of Rockford, Illinois, to federal prison for his role in a conspiracy to distribute heroin and crack cocaine, as well as for possessing a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime. Glover was sentenced to a total of 18 years in federal prison without parole, to be followed by 5 years of supervised release, and was ordered to pay a $250 fine and a $200 special assessment.

Glover pled guilty to the charges on April 26, 2007. In pleading guilty, he admitted that between at least 2001 to September 13, 2005, he conspired with others to distribute more than one kilogram of heroin, and more than 50 grams of cocaine base ("crack") in Rockford, Loves Park, and Chicago. According to Glover's plea agreement, Darrell "Duck" Davis controlled the drug trafficking activities of the Titanic Stones street gang in Rockford, also known as The Brothers. Beginning in 2001, Davis recruited several Titanic Stones gang members, including Glover, from Chicago to come to Rockford to assist in the sale of heroin and crack cocaine. Members of the gang arranged for houses to be rented in other person's names, usually females associated with a gang member, then used those houses as distribution centers for the sale of the drugs. The plea agreement further stated the gang used firearms to protect their drugs, money, and drug houses from rival drug dealers and rival gangs. Also according to the plea agreement, during the course of the conspiracy several Titanic Stones gang members were involved in shootings with rival drug dealers and gangs. At his sentencing hearing today, Glover admitted he participated in a shootout with members of a rival gang on August 11, 2005 in the 400 block of Underwood Street in Rockford. Three persons were shot and over 60 rounds were fired during that shootout.
